And push them
But don't overwhelm them

Question 1: How much do your students speak in class?

Question 2: What makes speaking difficult for them?

Question 3: Is it possible for students to be speaking for 45 minutes in a 60 minute class period?

Repetitions (Reps)
Hard lifts-the push

AN HONEST QUESTION

CLASSROOM TIME:

In your last class, how many seconds did your quietest student speak?

Өмнөх хичээлийн цагт танай ангийн хамгийн дуу цөөтэй сурагч хэдэн секунд ярьсан бэ?

AN HONEST QUESTION

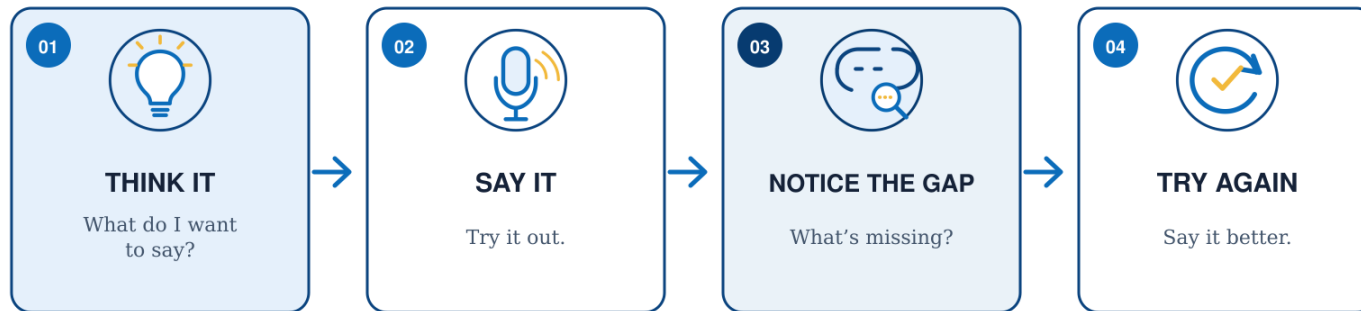

In your last class, how many seconds did your quietest student speak?

≈ 0

seconds of English
the quiet student
often produces
NOTHING

HOW IT WORKS

A SIMPLE SPEAKING CYCLE

Give them time to:

- 1) prepare/think about it
- 2) Say what they want to say

Then help them realize what they could do better (notice the gap) and let them try to do it again.

Pair Work Value

Demo 1 — Getting everyone talking

What did you like to do in your free time?

Question to whole group or class

THE REAL PROBLEM

One learner talks. Twenty-five students wait.

When the teacher asks the whole class a question, only one student speaks at a time. A few confident students answer, and most say nothing. The class feels busy, but almost no one is practicing.

1 student speaking
25 waiting

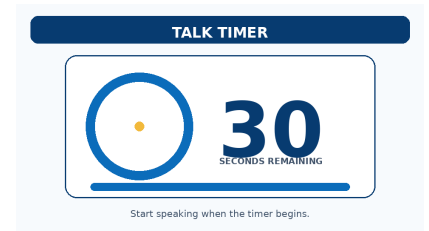

Shift to Pair Work

What did you like to do in your free time?

Two or more things please.
Answer to 2 or more people

Question to individuals for pair work

LEVER 1 • TURN UP THE VOLUME

Everyone talks at once during pair work.

HANDS-UP Q&A

≈ 1 min

of student talk in 90 seconds — only 3–4 students speak.

PAIRS, ALL AT ONCE

≈ 25+ min

of student talk in the same 90 seconds — every student speaks.

For acquisition, instruction must be designed to produce interaction and require students to speak.

You reflect on language

Talking about how to say something helps you learn the grammar—you often get coached.

Repetition Yields Fluency

TODAY'S BIG IDEA

There are two dials in the classroom.
Turn both up but sometimes one more than the other

DIAL 01

Volume

How much each student says in class. More turns, more words, more often.

DIAL 02

Push

How hard they work. They must speak using things they don't know well.

Tell the same story three times.
But shrink time to build fluency.

Demo 2

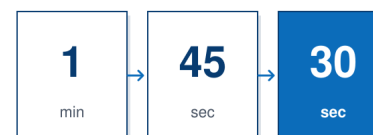

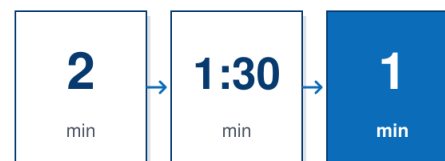

Say it again. Faster. New partner.

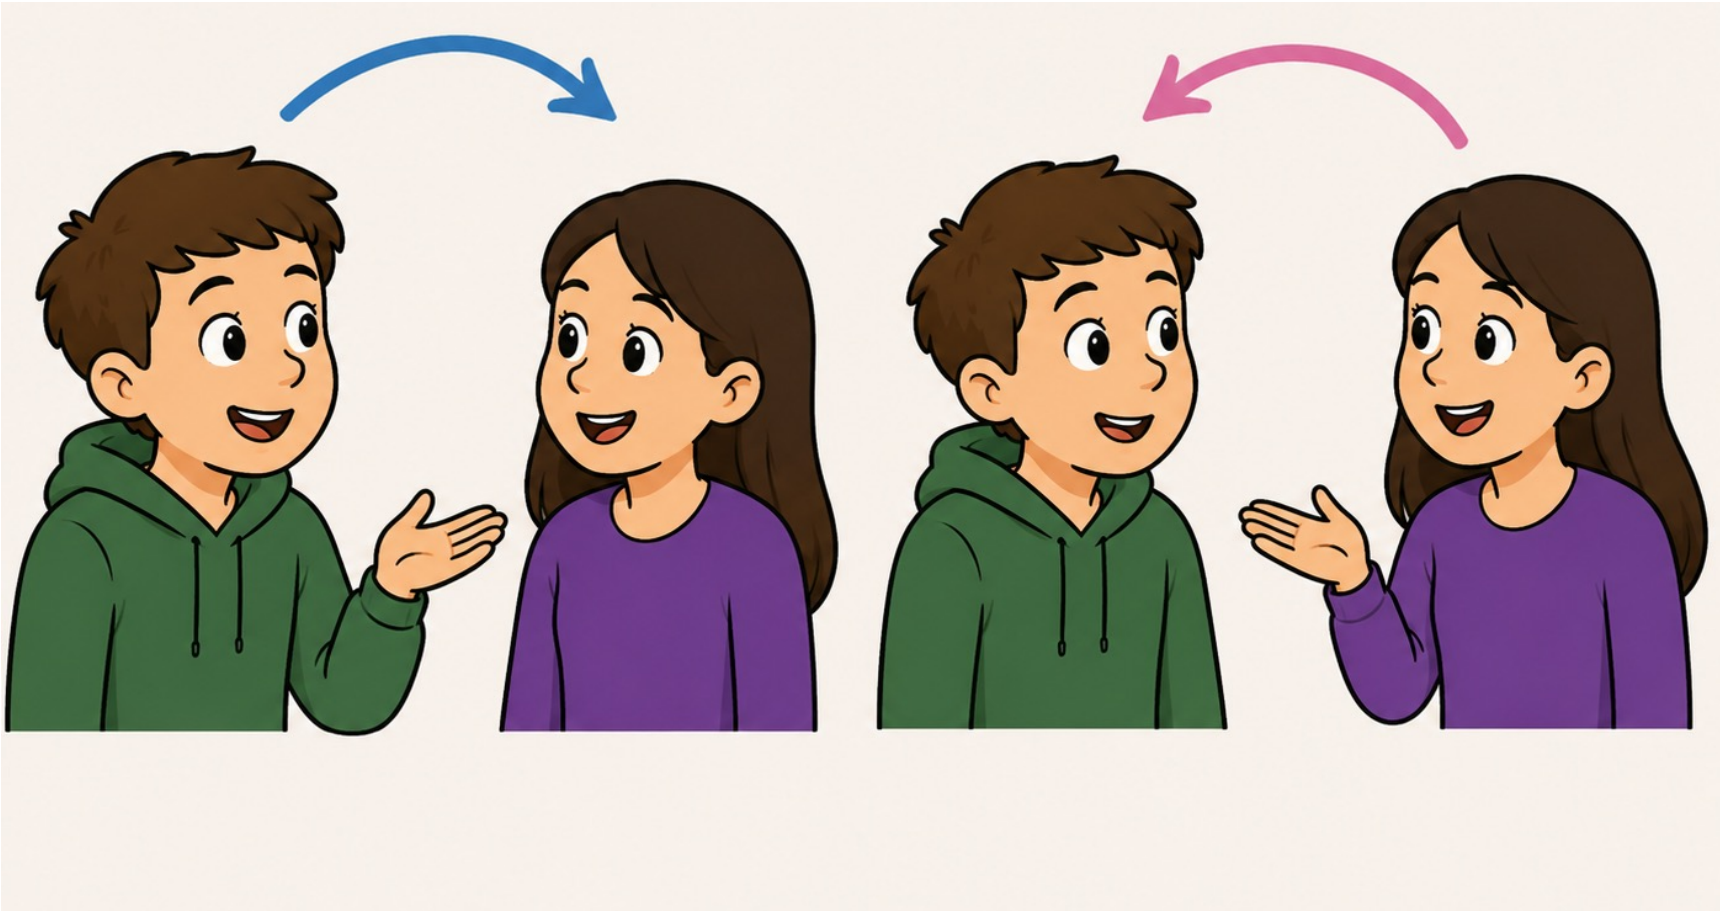

Students repeat the same talk with less time each round.

The words start to come automatically.

The classic version is 4/3/2: the same talk to three partners — four minutes, then three, then two.

We will do shorter times for demo purposes.

Volume gives them the practice. Push produces more complexity and accuracy. Between rounds, say: "Now say it again — but better."

1 Ask for one more detail or give one grammar point to use.

2 Give one grammar point to use

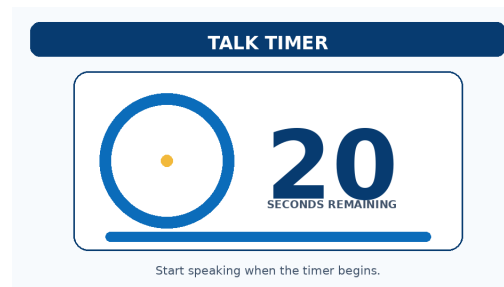

3 Give some new words to use.

Reflection

How was it?

Did you feel pushed?

Did it become more fluent with repetition?

What could you have done better?

What language would you like to learn?

Conclusion

- What are the main points that stood out to you?
- What will you do to change your teaching?
